

Obituary

Born: Monday, May 19, 1975

Died: Friday, August 12, 2016

Stacey Evette Bond Weaver was born to James Atkins and Elizabeth Scott- Lovell on May 19, 1975 in Boston, Massachusetts. She was educated in the Massachusetts School System graduating from Brighton High School in 1994.

Stacey accepted Christ as her personal savior and was baptized on April 16, 1989 in Boston, MA.

During high school, Stacey began working in a Phlebotomy Technician program. Upon her completion, she received her Phlebotomy Certificate and began working at the hospital.

Stacey loved traveling to the Carolinas with her children to visit her family. She eventually decided to relocate to Bluffton, SC. Upon her relocation, she became employed at the Main Street Inn on Hilton Head Island and then Sun Spire Health as the Assistant Dietary Manager.

On October 19, 2010 at "The Blind Pig," Stacey met Guy Alentino Weaver, the man that would love her and her children for the rest of her life.

On Friday, August 12, 2016, Stacey was called from labor to reward at Hampton Regional Medical Center in Varnville, SC. She was preceded in death by maternal grandmothers and grandfathers.

Stacey leaves to cherish her memories, four beautiful children to whom she was a survivor, their rock, and a phenomenal woman: Tyrique, Shaniyah, Azaria Scott, and Destiney Bond all of Bluffton, SC; a loving fiancée, Guy Weaver of Augusta, GA, who affectionately called her his "Doll Babe;" her mother, Elizabeth Scott-Lovell of Bluffton, SC; her father, James Atkins (Eula) of Boston, MA; one granddaughter, Skyla Brown of Bluffton, SC; siblings: Martez Crockton, Sean Pelzer, Michelle Nailah Patton, Tyrell Pelzer, Robertta Scott, and Staci Atkins, all of Boston, MA and Jonathan Scott of Bluffton, SC; along with a host of aunts, uncles, future in laws, cousins, and friends.

Service Summary

---

Services were completed.

Location: - Not available -